

Leave New Jersey's "Do Not Call List" alone. Finally, I can answer my phone without someone trying to sell me something. As for those companies I have done business with in the past year or so, if I want your services, I will call you. Put your energy where it is needed and leave our law alone!